

NEW ZEALAND'S TEN TOP SYRAH

Many of the 2002 wines may now be hard to find. Look for the 2004 vintages of the same wines; it was also an excellent vintage. All, except the wines from Dry River and Brookfields, are made from grapes grown in the Gimblett Gravels region

✓ Kusuda 2002 Syrah $70

A hot new label from Japanese winemaker, Hiro Kusada

Craggy Range 2002 Le Sol Syrah $70

Flagship wine from one of Hawke's Bay's leading producers

Bilancia 2002 La Collina Syrah $60

Superb, dense wine that includes viognier in the blend.

Dry River 2003 Syrah $50

Hard to find but worth the effort. A truly collectible syrah from Martinborough.

Newton Forrest 2002 Cornerstone Syrah $40

Deep, dense and very long-lived wine from the heart of Gimblett Gravels

Kingsley Estate 2002 Syrah $40

Powerful red made from organically grown grapes

Mills Reef 2002 Elspeth Syrah $40

A bold statement from this Hawke's Bay specialist

Brookfields 2002 Hillside Syrah $36

Big red with a silken texture – the result of a steep hillside vineyard

Mission 2002 Jewelstone Syrah $29

Flagship wine from the country's oldest winemaker

Stonecroft 2003 Syrah $38

An outstanding example from a difficult Hawke's Bay vintage
